Lenda March to Jail

Wednesday night the evangelist led a throng of 500 men to the jail to demand release of George Cox, Jr., arrested after a fight at the First Baptist church where a " vindication " service for Dr.
Heard was held and charges against him denied.Cox was released and a hearing was scheduled for yesterday.While waiting for the hearing, the evangelist and his followers asked permission to hold a prayer on the lawn of the city hall and it was finally granted. Jeffers, however, included in his prayer a supplication for a bolt of lightning to strike Mayor Boeler, who had denied the assemblage permission to hold a meeting at the city hall other than a "moment of prayer."Boeler interrupted him.
In the confusion that followed, a follower of the evangelist threw the mayor to the ground and was subdued by police.

Akin for Martial Law

The disorder led to a request by civil authorities that Governor Harvey Parnell declare martial law. Two companies of National guardsmen were ordered out but martial law was not declared.The evangelist removed his attack on Dr. Heard at services last night. The services ended quietly.Lieutenant James A. Puckett, second in command the guard-men, said today his superior officer, Captain Harry Eldridge, had telephoned Governor Parnell at Little Rock, saying "the situation can not be solved under present measures. Martial law must be declared."TEMPERATURE HITS the entire middle-west and western part of the United States, according to a United Press dispatch.Showers expected tomorrow in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and scattered sections of other plains states may bring relief.Three deaths from the heat were reported from Milwaukee where the wonder.

Freddy nodded somberly. he was drinking steadily —but not today. To my right mind and I'm that you mustn't marry mustn't do it!"

Finally Peak said: "Why any reason that she a darn about you. She's on for your rotten nothing else."

rose in his feet. "Look ics, please." Freddy you'll listen."

"I'll listen," Peak
"You've already already said is no.
You knew all about say I blame you for People have married before, and one or two have gotten away with it, ever, is different."

"The point?" Freddy
"We're getting down to and we're getting down at you didn't know before. You know that Sam isn't in love with you, but you don't know that she is in love with somebody else. Am I right?"

Peak sat quite still. In the end he nodded in a detached manner.
"You're right. With whom is Sam in love?"

"With me." Freddy lifted a warning hand. "Now let's not have any scene. I'm just telling you the truth."

"No scene." Peak brushed the suggestion aside impatiently. "You say that Sam is in love with you, and I suppose I can assume that you are in love with her."

"You can." Freddy nodded. "I'm a fool. I suppose, but I can't help it. I love her and I want her."

"I see," Peak smiled. "Well, I love her and want her, too, Munson, so that's one point on which we both think alike."

They were silent for a time. Looking at each other. Then Peak said:

"Well, let's hear the story."

"What story?"

"All right, then," said Freddy firmly, "leave me out of it altogether!
I'm willing to get out of here and never come back, if you, in your turn, are willing to let Sam go."

"If we both left her, she wouldn't have one thing or the other—comfort or romance."

"Then what shall we do?" Freddy inquired sarcastically. "Shan we flip a coin to see who gets her?"

"It seems to me," said Peak gently, "that we've forgotten one important thing. We've forgotten that you and I really have no voice in the matter. The decision rests entirely with Sam whether she'll have you or me. Unless I'm mistaken, she has already made that decision."

Freddy was pale. "Admirable logic! I'm asking you now whether you are going to let her stick to a decision that will wreck her life."

To Be Continued.

Irish Have Chance To Cop City Softball Title Today

PLAY PRESBYTERIANS AT LINCOLN PARK IN LITTLE WORLD SERIES

Victory for Presb Will Force One More Game; Result Is Toss-Up.

The St. Mary's Irish have an opportunity today to bring to an end the Little World series in recreation baseball and at the same time, win the city championship, now held by the Erie Roundhouse.

The Irish nine, champions of the No. 2 Sunday school league, will clash with the First Presbyterians, title holders of the No. 2 church league at Lincoln park at 6 p.m. Should the Irish win, it will give them a record of three victories and no defeat while the Presbyterians would have two defeats, enough to eliminate them from consideration for the city title. On the other hand, should the Presb win, another game will be necessary to decide the winner, for both teams will have lost one game.

Result Is Toss-Up.

The result of today's game is as near a toss-up as any played yet during the series. The Irish have been beaten once this season in an exhibition game by the Presbyterians but this doesn't give the Presb much of an advantage in pre-game sentiment. Shoemaker and Gander will oppose each other on the mound and this almost assures a good game. Gander has turned in two fine games so far this series and Shoemaker has been twirling steady ball.

If the game today goes as has nearly every other one this series, it will be decided more by fielding errors than by good or bad pitching. On nearly every occasion this series, the losing pitcher has twirled nearly on a par with the winning hurler but has seen his chances of victory go sailing when one of his team mates committed a miscue to allow the winning runs to cross the plate. Of course, this is to be expected once in awhile, but this series it has become almost a habit.

Probable Lineups.

The lineup today will probably be the same as have started in previous games of the two teams.

Here they are:

Team	Pitchers	Infield	Outfield
Presb	Norris, et. Pauls, et. Shannon, et. Gunder, et. O'Connell, et. Andrews, et. Lusch, et. Irvin, et. Hagan, et.	Oberlander, C. Conroy D. Gellert R. Herring M. Zaher P. Shoemaker C. Morgan L. Minard

"Pete" Elkins, Texas university quarterback and captain-elect of the cage squad, is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic society.

MOVE OVER WKYOFFS!

Dixie Kid Enters Fast 'Century' Company

By The Associated Press
MERIDIAN, Miss.—Jack Burnett, Olympic contender in 1932, that's the way L. B. Benedetto, secretary of the southern division of the National A. A. U., shod up Mississippi's sensational track star.

Burnett, a freshman at the University of Mississippi, burst into the news when he ran the 100 yard dash in 9.8 seconds and the 220 in 23.8 at the A. A. U. meet in New Orleans. And again when he stepped the century in 9.6 at the national A. A. U. championships at Lincoln, Neb., one-tenth of a second slower than the official world's record.

He is a graduate of Meridian high school where he was never defeated in a 100 or 220-yard race. His best performance for the century in high school was 10 seconds flat.

Burnett topped off his performances this season by setting a new junior 220 record of 21.8 at the Lincoln meet.

K. P. Golchel, Burnett's coach at "Ole Miss," said: "He takes coaching better than any track man I've ever worked with and there is nothing of the ' prima donna' about him. He sets his heart on a definite goal and works toward that goal with all he has."

CARDINALS, MACKMEN MOVE NOTCH CLOSER TO LEAGUE PENNANTS

Athletics Have Two Possible Rivals; Streetman One, Others Distanced.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
It seems to be only a matter of time now before the Philadelphia Athletics and St. Louis Cardinals, leaders of the two major leagues, reach the point where their grips on the 1931 pennants are mathematical certainties. Today the Cards have only one possible rival left and the A's two.

The New York Giants kept following the pace set by the National League leaders yesterday, but Brooklyn received its dismantling from the hands of the last place Cincinnati Reds. With all other rivals long since out of it, the Washington Senators and New York Yankees still cling to the faint chance that they will overtake Philadelphia's Athletics.

Giant Stop Runs

Seven games behind the Giants, bunched in one of the day's greatest feuds as they opened their final tour of the west with a 6 to 1 triumph over Pittsburgh. The Pirates had been going great guns to record eight straight victories.

There was no gain registered by the Giants, however, for the Cardinals won their fifth in a row, downing the Boston Braves 7 to 3. This victory alone would have been enough to end Brooklyn's chances of taking the pennant, but Cincinnati completed the job by downing the Robins 8 to 1. Clear out of the race through a four-game losing streak, the Chicago Cubs came back to winning form with a bang. With Pat Malone pitching well and helping his own game with a homer, the Cubes downed the Phillips 17 to 4.

Holding Their Own

The Athletics and Washington again played just well enough to win a game apiece and hold their places. 10 games apart at the head of the American League. Each picked up a half game on the New York Yankees, the other team which has a mathematical chance to win, as the New Yorkers had an off day.

The A's hammered Wallace Hembree of St. Louis for four runs in the first inning, then coasted through to a 6 to 3 triumph. The Senators fielded expertly behind Lloyd Brown, cutting down Cleveland's scoring chances with four double plays as they downed the Indians 5 to 3.

Detroit, aided by some fine pitching by young Tom Bridges, distributed the standing a trifly by pinching St. Louis to go into fifth place. Bridges shut out the Boston Red Sox with six hits to beat Wiley Moore in a mound duel 3 to 0.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11—Manager (Lefty) Leifeld has brought a championship team to St. Paul, but it looks as though he will have plenty of rebuilding to do in 1932.

Today in Marion Markets

Groceries, Produce, Meat, Grain, Livestock

Peaches continue to flood the markets. Home grown varieties coming on the market on top of large shipments from the lake districts has produced a surplus that has brought prices to the lowest level in a number of years. Prices ranging from 35 cents for run of the orchard to 75 cents for selected fruit were being asked by dealers today. With many thousands of bushels still unpicked in the lake orchards, the prospects of any immediate advance are not good, dealers say. Apples at 40 cents a bushel was an offer by one grower today although dealers were offering 10 pounds for 25 cents. Musk-melons continue plentiful and were selling at five and ten cents today. Plums for canning were holding at 31 a bushel with dealers carrying only fairly large supplies.

Sweet corn for canning was selling at 12 and 14 dozen for 11 today.

The supply was not exceptionally large although ample to meet the demand. Canning pickles were holding at 30 cents a hundred to day although growers were offering some at 25 cents. The Stars Say—Saturday, Sept. 12.

A VERY lively and eventful day is forecast from the interesting program by lunar as well as mutual aspect. Employment, industry, labor and real possessions are in the fore, with many prospects of solid gain, renewed initiative and probably advantageous change, promotion or honors. Purely personal matters are also lively and respond to the fortuitous influences.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a very lively and eventful year, with benefits through employment, industry, promotion and the accumulation of tangible assets and real property. There may be fine initiative and tendency to change, but too much haste or impetuosity as well as snap judgments or quick signing of papers are admonished against.
"Slow but sure" should be the motto. A child born on this day may be shrewd, capable, steady and practical, gaining honors and place through its individual merits and fidelity.

Notable nativity: R. M. Hoe, inventor.

TIME UNIMPORTANT TO PARIS PIGEONS

By International News Service PARIS—Love mocks at clocks and watchmakers. The clock on the Church of Notre Dame des Victoires in Paris, say the clergy, is the finest timepiece in Paris, say the clergy. One day it stopped at 10:45 o'clock; It was restarted. The next day, however, the same thing happened. A clockmaker was called in. Everything was in perfect order. The clock persisted, nevertheless, in stopping daily at 10:45. Then the problem was solved. Every day at 10:40 a pigeon alighted on the minute hand preening in the sun. Every day at 10:45 he was joined by his mate. Their combined weight stopped the clock.

PIANIST ON PROGRAM AT KIWANIS MEETING

New York Artist Plays at Luncheon of Marion Club.

Members of the Kiwanis club and their guests enjoyed an unusual program at their weekly luncheon at the Marion club yesterday noon when a program of four piano numbers was given by Dr.

J. Maudes van Zandt of New York City.

Students of the piano who were present at the short concert, were generous in their praise of the ability shown by Dr. van Zandt.
"Marion was fortunate to have heard Dr. van Zandt," Mrs. H. K.
Mouser, music chairman of the State Federation of Music Club, said at the conclusion of the program. "He has marvelous technic and brilliancy and is an artist in the true sense of the word."

Dr. van Zandt opened his program with "A Minor Concerto" by Grieg, and was accompanied on the second piano by Mrs. Mouser.

He then followed with two solo numbers, "Ballade" from "Ophé-lie" by Glinka-Friedman and "Wildmann" by Schumann-Lista. The program closed with "E Flat Major Concerto" by Grieg, and as in the opening number, was accompanied on the second piano by Mrs. Mouser.

Dr. van Zandt, who returned to New York yesterday afternoon is said to have been a student of Ernest Hutchison of the Peabody Institute and later of the world famous Paderevski at Paris. He also is said to have given joint concerts with Anna Case, Geraldine Parrar and John McCormick at various times.

A New York university chemist has developed a method for preducing lithium, the lightest known metal, in commercial quantities.

TON-GEE REMEDY
MY SALVATION
SHE DECLARES

The Only Thing To Ever
Help This Marion Lady; Is Calling It a "Wonder Medicine."

Mrs. W. J. Robbins, of 285 Elm street, Marion, is still another widely known resident who is publicizing Ton-Gee, which is the great doctor's natural medicine that has recently become a sensation here in Marion and is now being introduced to large crowds daily in this city at the Stump and Sons drug store. Following is Mrs. Robbins' OWN STATEMENT verifying and endorsing Ton-Gee to ALL WHO SUFFER:

"Ton-Gee is nothing short of wonderful. I had been a sufferer for years, but it simply worked the misery right out of me and made me into a different person," said Mrs. Robbins. "I had gotten to be a great victim of stomach and liver trouble. What I ate would sour and would digest at all and gas would form in my stomach and blow me into a terrible condition and it would press on my heart and make me dizzy all over. Dreadful headaches would come over me and last for days at a time. Even my nerves would ache and pain me and I was so nervous that I would go all to pieces at the least thing."

"Oh I tell you, it would be hard for ANYBODY to realize the condition my whole system had gotten into and I kept spending all kind of money trying every medicine that I could hear of but nothing helped me. Then my husband told me about Ton-Gee and I made up my mind to try it. Well say that I was amazed at the way it acted for it started right in to cleanse all the impurities out of me, and it worked the suffering out of me stomach and my food digests with out any gas or sourness and it is simply wonderful the way it acts regulating them in a natural man on the bowels for it cleanses and purifies. It cleared up my liver troume so that I don't suffer any more with headaches and it also quieted down my whole nervous system and I can go to bed and get SOUND and HEALTHY sleep all night. I think Ton-Gee is the greatest thing of the kind that EVER CAME HERE. It is a wonderful medicine and I want to recommend it to EVERYBODY WHO SUFFERS."

Ton-Gee is sold in Marion at the Stump and Sons Drug Store.

They were both implicated in a shooting affray with Charles Brown of Fulton and Blake was wounded. Prohibition Director Woodcock bans the drinking of liquor to secure evidence on law violators. What he trying to do anyway, nullify the appeal of the job?

An Australian girl is walking 600 miles to reduce her weight. Incidentally, she will pick up quite a little newspaper notoriety, or course.

In contrast to Great Britain, Germany and Austria, France and Belgium are comparatively flourishing. Can it be that it pays in the long run to get invaded by a foreign foe?

Former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, says that the report that he is definitely out of the 1932 presidential contest is unauthorized. That puts it in the list labeled "Important, If True."

A new gun sight and mount put into use at Camp Perry, recently, is said to have increased the efficiency of anti-plane defense 500 per cent. Either our anti-plane defense has been something awful in the past, or the new device is a marvel.

The federal bureau of the census reports that of the 38,357,001 persons in the country between the ages of five and twenty, 26,488,639, or 69 per cent, are attending school. It is evident that the country is pretty thoroughly committed to the idea that education pays.

Lovers in Columbus back in 1896, Ida H.
Darling, sixty-four, and Francis Melich, seventy, were married in Wheeling, West Virginia, Thursday. Little Dan Cupid is certainly persistent youngster.

Representative Menalous Lankford, of Virginia, is urging a $100,000,000 congressional appropriation to finance the purchase and construction of small homes in country districts for the unemployed in cities. Anything else?

The Finnish Federation of Judges holds in a communication addressed to the government that the Finnish dry law is a failure and has resulted in a fifty per cent increase in drinking and more crime. Down here the thing would probably have to be reversed to tend more drinking and fifty per cent more crime.

The Cleveland Federation of Women's Clubs, contrary to predictions, refused to make any effort to obtain clemency for Mrs. Maude Lowther who in cold blood shot and killed the wife of the man for whom she lusted, which goes to show the aggregate good sense of the Cleveland Federation of Women's Clubs.

Newton D. Baker, of Cleveland, is the first choice of the editors of the more prominent newspapers of the land for the Democratic nomination for the presidency. Here's another case where the editors are making manifest that they possess better political judgment than the politicians.

Cheap Things at Best.

In the United States, where political invective rarely transgresses the bonds of good taste the jeering taunts directed at Prime Minister MacDonald during his first message to the house of commons, as head of the new coalition government, were surprising. Newspaper correspondents reported that the heckling was so pointed and uncouth that tears came into Mr. MacDonald's eyes, and he had to be prompted in his speech. Philip Snowden who accompanied the prime minister in his desertion of the Labor party, and who, Thursday, courageously presented a budget calling for stern sacrifices to meet Britain's financial crisis, turned white as he listened to the jeers and catcalls.

Europeans, on the whole see no wrong in showing their displeasure directly when they are being addressed or interviewed. Chancellor Bruegel, the scholarly dictator of German politics, has read messages to the Reichstag when taunts from ardent National Socialists and Communists were so loud that it was impossible to hear his words.

It is difficult to imagine a scene of such confusion in either house of the United States congress though during the stormy days that followed the close of the Civil war bitter heckling was developed. Certainly, the mild and often facetious side remarks to be found in the Congressional Record these later times have little sting.

Jests have a place in the collection of instruments to prick dangerous inflations of the ego, but in the United States, where moderation in public utterance is the unwritten rule, they are likely to be regarded as a sign of desperation. Humor and logic are better adapted to the work of successful arguing than personal insults.

Congressional Congress Suggested.

In the opinion of Congressman James M.
Beck of Philadelphia, there is no reason whatever save that of partisan politics, why government expenditures can not be reduced from $5,000,000,000 to $3,000,000,000, and to that end he would have a coalition congress which would cut public expenditures to the bone.

Congressman Beck would have the leading men of both the two old parties in congress gather together and declare a moratorium on party politics. If this were done, he holds and legislation for partism ad vitium were buried, the way would be opened for the obviating of the threatened deficit and placing the balance on the black ink side of the government ledger without resort to increased taxation. He would not have the Army and navy singled out for the working of economy as has been urged.
The desired result, in his view, may be accomplished by closing the treasury to further raids raids which otherwise would be permitted for what amounts to vote-buying purposes, by suspending further payments to the sinking fund during the existence of the present crisis, by abolishing almost countless needless bureaus with which the federal departments are honeycombed and possibly by the restoration of light wines and beer and the imposition of a heavy excise tax thereon.

"The difficulty of effecting economies in the congress," Representative Beck says in his statement, "lies in the party system, for the minority can always propose extravagant expenditures which, if rejected by the majority, makes for it many enemies and no friends.
Therefore it seems to the average congressman good politics to win the favor of the few who will benefit by special legislative favors."

To defeat this he would have congress emulate the British and form a coalition government in spirit, although not in form, and devote its entire energies to the welfare of the country rather than to partisan advantage.

It may be said for the plan urged by Congressman Beck, that it would bar all possibility of partisan credit for any advantageous accomplishment which might result from it, and while it might not reduce government expenditures by $2,000,000,000, it unquestionably would work an enormous saving to the American people.

But good as the suggested plan is, it is very gravely to be feared that it is doomed in advance by the light-wines-and-beer-excise-tax possibility. That will prove anathema to a large element of the American people fully committed to prohibition as the great body of politicians to party, and possibly less inclined to abandon it even in the financial evils the government faces than politicians will be inclined to abandon partisan politics.

In the light of the marriage of Miss Muriel McCormick to Mr. Elsie D. Hubbard up in Maine, Thursday, we take it that the bride came to the conclusion that her "spiritual" marriage to a youth killed in the World war she had never met was a matrimonial frost.

The Parole Joker.

Every list of recommendations for penal reform has included more extensive use of the parole. Prison wardens whose opinions bear weight have asserted without hesitation that large numbers of prisoners should be placed on probation after short terms.

Ohio's new "good behavior" law enacted as part of the extensive penal reform demanded by the Easter Monday fire at the state prison, seeks to give deserving prisoners the advantage of liberal parole policy. It assumes that prison officials are right in their common belief that certain tractable prisoners should be allowed to go free under close supervision, in preference to confining them.

The Joker in the parole idea is apparent.
For every prisoner eligible for parole there seems to be a member of society interested in keeping him in prison. Protests by the score are being sent to the parole board asking that this prisoner or that prisoner be refused parole because he is dangerous to society.

Just how much weight these protests will have on the state's new parole board remains to be seen.

They should not have as much weight as the welfare of the prisoners concerned. If these men are eligible and qualified for another chance, they should have it. Unfortunately, it is that the chance is to fall in a period of depression when it will be doubly hard for them to make the necessary readjustments in their lives.

The chief investigator for the states at turney up in Chicago following the arrest of five men charged with the abduction of James Blackett, wealthy Blue Island gambler, for whose release ransom amounting to $75,000 was paid charges that Chicago police held up the abductors and took $50,000 of the ransom money from them. They pull off some mighty quick stunts up in the Windy City.

Los Angeles police used a stomach pump to recover a marked five-dollar bill which had been given a blind tiger keeper for a bottle of liquor and he swallowed when placed under arrest. Isn't this carrying seal for the enforcement of prohibition somewhat far? The general understanding has been that the prohibition law was for the protection of public morals. It's a bit surprising to learn that it is applied to manipulation of private "inwards."

Going from Paris to London recently, Mme.
Ida Rubenstein, the French actress, took with her seventy tons of baggage including 2,000 dresses and hundreds of hats. Ida may find use for a wardrobe like that in London, but to what earthly use could she have been putting it upon the French stage?

Illinois farmers have launched drive which they plan to make nationwide for three percent loans from the federal government. There seems to be a feeling that the present is the logical time for raids on the United States treasury, but why should three per cent loans be limited to the farmers or any particular element of the population? Why not put all on the same footing? Of course it ultimately would break the government but a little thing like that doesn't seem to be a matter of any great moment any longer.

SHORT PERIODS FOR STUDENTS

Arthur Brisbane's Today

First-Year Pupils To Be Dismissed Early for Rest of Month.

First-grade pupils in all public schools are to have shortened periods for the remainder of the month starting Monday, Superintendant George A. Bowman announced today. This will be done in an effort to aid the first-timers in becoming accustomed to school routine. Morning dismissal will be at 10:30 and in the afternoon at 2:45.

The enrollment over the city after the first week of registration was 6,079 at noon today, a figure still slightly below that last year which was 6,123. School officials expect the enrollment parallel last year's in a few days, however.

Harding high school with 943 pupils presents a serious condition due to lack of space, Superintendent Bowman said. This is an increase of approximately 73 pupils over last year. The building would accommodate 700 conveniently, but is seriously crowded this year, he said. Classes are being held up to the room capacity and a few additional classes have been assigned, but no immediate relief is in sight, Superintendent Bowman stated.

Presumably all other crowded conditions in the schools have been worked out, with a transfer to be made Monday of a few second grade pupils from Greenwood street building to Forest lawn, which will nearly complete the work of re-arrangement.

An appeal to motorists of the city was made by Superintendent Bowman for care in driving through school zones. Pupils are being instructed both at school and at home to "look up and down the street" before crossing and cooperation of drivers is sought. All school zones are supplied with markers by the Marion Auto club.

Tom Marshall of Dallas, Tex., won his eighth golf title of the year when he captured the Fort Worth Glen Garden invitation tournament.

THEY'RE FLYING DITCH-DIGGERS

MRS. GOMPF ANSWERS GAS STATION SUIT

Asserts in Answer She Has Permit To Erect Building on Lot.

Mrs. Hattie B. Gompf of Delaware avenue and south State street today answered the injunction suit brought against her by the city of Marion to restrain her from erecting a filling station on her property. She asks dismissal of the suit.

Admitting she plans to erect a station on her property, Mrs. Gompf states she obtained a building permit for a filling station from the city clerk Sept. 3, 1925, and later obtained a permit to put in a driveway. For these reasons she maintains the city has no right to interfere with her plans to erect a station.

The injunction suit of the city was filed through Carter M. Patton, city solicitor, to determine how long a building permit can be held by an individual before used. Mrs. Gompf's permits were issued before the city had a zoning ordinance. The suit will also test the legality of dozens of building permits issued a year ago when for three months the city was without a spring ordinance. After the court of appeals held the city's zoning ordinance illegal.

The existing zoning ordinance prohibits the erection of filling stations in residential districts.

The law firm of Garhart, Warner & Garhart represents Mrs. Gompf.
